Booking Terms and Conditions

Payment Terms

Full payment must be received in advance of the start of the course. Should payment not be received, Mobius reserves the right to treat the bookings as cancelled.

Vouchers

Vouchers are valid twelve months from the date of purchase. Vouchers are transferable between all courses and can be given to a third party. Refunds are not possible under any circumstances. It is the responsibility of the recipient to book and complete the course within the twelve-month period.

The Course

Mobius will provide insurance, tuition and all equipment required to undertake the course effectively and safely. Please be fully aware that all courses are weather dependent and that this may adversely affect your course. The decision to cancel due to compromised safety or extreme weather conditions rests solely with the instructor.

Transport

For kitesurfing courses some form of transport (other than public transport) must be available in order to get to other beaches if required. A full list of all the locations we operate from is on our website or can be produced upon request. If the student is unable to get to another beach, the voucher or payment for that course becomes null and void.

Cancellation by Mobius

In the event of a lesson being cancelled due to the weather, Mobius will attempt to rebook the student for an alternative date. Provided the student has allocated at least one back up day, if the lesson still cannot be completed, Mobius will refund the deposit paid. Vouchers will be extended for 6 months.

Cancellation by the Customer

Cancellations must be a minimum of 14 days prior to the course. Cancellations within 14 days result in the deposit/voucher becoming null and void, unless a medical note is supplied.

Missed Bookings

In the event of a booked course being missed the voucher/deposit for that course becomes null and void. No refunds or cancellation procedures may apply. Any attempts to re-use a cancelled voucher will be rejected.

Disclaimer

Mobius carries full public liability and instructor insurance, but customers must be aware that kite sports are potentially dangerous and are undertaken at their own risk.

All customers must sign in agreement with the booking terms and conditions before the commencement of the course.
